

LEARNING FRENCH

The University of Perpignan's Centre Universitaire d'Etudes Françaises (University Centre for French studies) offers a range of different course types for discovering French culture and learning the language:

- Theme-based courses
- Teacher training courses – learning how to teach French as a foreign language
- Summer language courses
- Semester- or year-long French courses
- Provision of tests to ascertain students' proficiency and knowledge of French:
 - French language test (TCF), French language test for people applying for French nationality, French language test for the general public
 - French assessment test, French assessment test for people wishing to settle in Québec
- University and National diplomas: from level A1 to level C2 (as defined by the Common European Reference Framework for Languages)
 - University Diplomas in French Language
 - Diplôme d'Etudes en Langue Française (French language study diploma)
 - Diplôme d'Etudes Approfondies en Langue Française (advanced French language study diploma)
 - Paris Chamber of Commerce examinations

The University Centre for French studies has been awarded the "French as a Foreign Language Quality" label by the French Ministry for Education and the Ministry for Foreign Affairs and French Culture.

UNIVERSITY YEAR – SEPTEMBER – MAY

- General language courses
- Academic-themed French courses

SUMMER UNIVERSITY – JULY – AUGUST

- General language courses
- French language courses for special purposes: law, business, medical, etc.
- Theme-based courses: wine and culture, gastronomy, literature, scientific French, etc.
- Teacher training courses.

CAMPUS JUNIOR 13/17 YEAR OLDS

- General language courses and multi activities.

For more information: visit the University Centre for French studies website.

Date of update April 18, 2016

CONTACTS

Michaela Ragueneau

Tel : +33 (0)4 68 66 20 10

CUEF website