

RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER DEPARTMENT

The research and research promotion department is responsible for the administrative management and promotion of research and the Doctoral Schools, as well as the application of this research.

Its main responsibilities include:

- Doctoral studies: welcoming PhD students and providing them with information, PhD and CST registrations, structuring training modules, arranging and preparing PhD vivas, issuing degree certificates, assignments.
- Support for laboratories: information, dashboards, procedures in relation to accreditation to direct research, grants, quality research bonuses, tracking of scientific production, conferences and congresses
- Vice Presidency: logistic arrangements pertaining to the Research Committee Academic Board and the Scientific Bureau, bibliometric aid, tracking of indicators and dossiers for the Ministry of Higher Education and Research and the Languedoc-Roussillon region and relations with the Presidency.
- Technology transfer: monitoring and information for calls for projects, putting together projects, negotiating and drafting research contracts with institutional and industrial partners, financial management of research contracts, employment contracts based on agreements, industrial protection and technology transfer, support for setting up companies in coordination with the research units.

Date of update June 22, 2015